NEW YORK. April 6.—The market for standard copper was weak today. Spot and all deliveries up to the end of July were quoted at $12.70@12.90. The English market was higher; apot £58 28 6d and futures £59 5s. Customs house returns showed exports of 355 tons for the day, making 1400 tons so far this month. Local dealers quote lake copper at $12.25 do $13.50. electrolytic at $13.00@13.25, and casting at $12.75@13.00.

Tin was irregular; spot, $32.95@33.10; April, $32.80@32.90; May, $32.85@33.15; July, $33.05@33.25.

June, $32.924@33.15; July, $33.05@33.25.

Dervisions closed at net declines of 42½c to $1.25. Wheat was extremely weak all day, and at the low point prices showed losses of nearly 2 cents compared with Monday's final figures. The amouncement before trading began of the suspension of a firm identified closely with the cash corn trade brought out considerable selling in all pits, although the pressure was especially noticeable in corn. Prices at the opening were off to $1.034. Suppose the pressure was especially noticeable in the first heavy of $1.054, and September at $1.02$ to $1.054. The low point for July was $1.04$. September dropped to $1.014. The new crop months rallied in the final half hour and closed about ic above the low figures.

April, $32.50@32.90; May, $32.85@32.10; June, $32.80@32.90; May, $32.85@32.15; June, $32.85@32.15; July, $33.05@32.15; The London market was slightly higher; spot at £152 and futures at £152 28 6d. Load was dull; spot, $4.40@4.45 New York, and $4.20@4.25 East St. Louis. London was unchanged at £12 13s 9d. Spelter was dull; spot, $5.55@5.65 New York and $5.37@5.47$ East St. Louis. The London market was unchanged at £23.

Persistent liquidation characterized trading in corn and the price of all de-liveries dropped more than 15c. The closing out of accounts of a leading concern was perhaps the most important factor in the situation. Cash grain was off 1 to 2 cents, No. 3 yellow seiling at 555/257c. May sold between 584/259c. The market closed weak at almost the bottom, May being down 15c, at 585c. Oats were weak all day because of the siump in wheat and corn. The close was weak with prices $493c to 1915c lower. York and $5.37$\(\pi_5,47\) East St. Louis. The London market was unchanged at $23$.

The English iron market was unchanged at $1s 4\) for Cleveland warrants. Locally the market was steady: No. 1 toundry northern, $18.00\(\pi_18.50\); No. 2 foundry northern and No. 1 southern and No. 2 southern and No. 3 southern was weak with prices $60 to 1601sc lower.

Free selling of provisions today resulted in sensational declines. Pork declined $1.23 to $1.32 May pork declined from $25.00 to $22.95, and the July option from $25.10 to $24.00. May products closed as follows: Pork. $22.95; lard, $13.22 and ribs, $13.07 and on ribs $24.0.

CONFERENCE CONTINUES TO KEEP MARKET ACTIVE

The conference visitors kept business pretty bright on the local produce market Wednesday. The largest demand was for fresh fruit and vesetables.

The desiers are now locking forward to the time when the Utah products will be coming in. Already there are a few early products on the market, but the large part of the supply of fresh vegetables is from the coast.

New potatoes are coming from the coast moderately fresh tow, but as yet there has been no change in the price of the product.

FARMER'S MONEY

We collected a little bag of gold for James Warren, a farmer, of Clearfield, Utah. He trusted another farmer to the extent of $130. The other farmer wouldn't pay. Mr. Warren offered to compromise for $100 cash, but the other farmer said "Nay." We had a lawsuit and the little bag of gold is the result. Turn in your claims and we will collect some gold for you.
